Did You Know...Independence Day Should Actually Be July 2?

*And Other Little Known Facts About
The Declaration Of Independence*

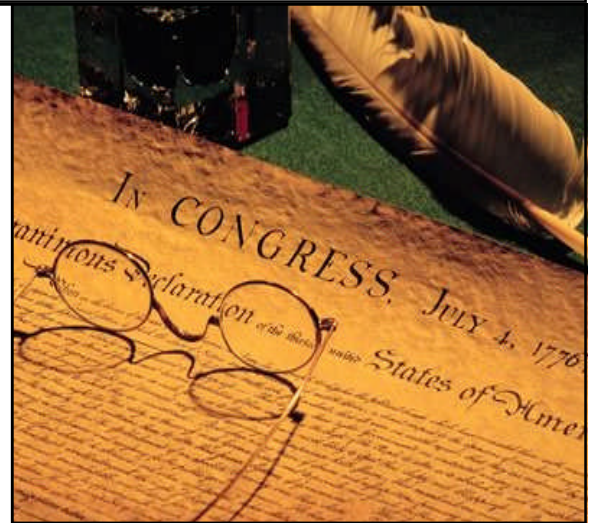

Source: The National Archives

(Washington, DC)

America's revolutionary Charter of Freedom, the Declaration of Independence is a document upon which our nation's founding principles were established.

The Declaration of Independence set the course for our nation on a journey of freedom, which also led this historic document on its own journey. For example, did you know....:

Who Authored the Declaration of Independence? Thomas Jefferson wrote the first draft of the Declaration of Independence, which was then edited by John Adams and Benjamin Franklin. Jefferson took their edits and incorporated them into what would become the version finally adopted.

Independence Day Should Have Been July 2 – July 2, 1776 is the day that the Continental Congress actually voted for independence. John Adams, in his writings, even noted that July 2 would be remembered in the annals of American history and would be marked with fireworks and celebrations. The written Declaration of Independence was dated July 4 but wasn't actually signed until August 2. Fifty-six delegates eventually signed the document, although all were not present on that day in August.

Who Signed and In What Order? –John Hancock signed first, with a large hand right in the middle because he was the President of the Congress. The others signed by state delegation, beginning in the upper right in one column, and then proceeding in five other columns, arranged from the northernmost state (New Hampshire) to the southernmost (Georgia).

Who Signed Last? It is believed Thomas McKean of Delaware was the last person to sign. When Congress authorized the printing of an official copy with the names attached in January 1777, McKean's name was not included. He signed after that date, or the printer made a mistake by omitting him.

On The Road Again – The Declaration of Independence spent many years on the road. After the signing ceremony on August 2, it was most likely filed in Philadelphia. On December 12, threatened by the British, Congress adjourned and reconvened 8 days later in Baltimore, MD, where the document remained until its return to Philadelphia in March of 1777. In the years to follow, it traveled widely with the Continental Congress throughout the Northeast, then moving to Washington, DC in 1800. In 1814, again threatened by war, it was moved to an unused gristmill in Virginia for protection. On August 24, as the British burned the White House, it was moved to Leesburg, VA until September, when it returned to the nation's capital. With the exception of a trip to Philadelphia for the Centennial and to Fort Knox during World War II, it has remained there ever since.

If By Land or By Sea – The document has also experienced many modes of travel. Initially, like other parchment documents of the time, the Declaration was probably stored in a rolled format. Each time the document was used, it would have been unrolled and re-rolled. It likely traveled by light wagon and by horseback with the Continental Congress in its early years. When it was first brought to Washington, it traveled by boat, down the Delaware River and Bay, out into the ocean, into the Chesapeake Bay, and up the Potomac to the new capital city. During World War II, it was moved by Pullman train to Louisville, KY and transferred under armed guard to Fort Knox for safety and protection.

DO YOU KNOW...

There is no official designation or meaning for the colors of the flag. There is no record stating why red, white, and blue were chosen for the flag. However, when the Great Seal of the United States was chosen this is what was listed for them:

White for purity and innocence

Red for valor and hardiness

Blue for vigilance, perseverance, and justice.

SCENIC EUROPE TOUR

Set loose your inner mountain goat and join Pastor Scott and Peggy Harris for an 11 day tour of Scenic Europe, including stops in historic cities of Switzerland, Austria, and Southern Germany. For more information, you can pick up a brochure in the church office or visit Pastor Scott's webpage at www.vscottharris.com.

DISCIPLE BIBLE STUDY CLASSES BEGIN IN AUGUST

This is the sixteenth year the DISCIPLE Bible study program has been offered at Asbury. Over the years, hundreds of graduates have completed the classes.

DISCIPLE (I): BECOMING DISCIPLES THROUGH BIBLE STUDY is a dynamic approach to Bible study that emphasizes disciplined reading of Scripture. During the course of 34 weeks, DISCIPLE groups move through the Scriptures from Genesis to Revelation. All DISCIPLE Bible study participants will read more than 70 percent of the Bible. The Scripture for each session follows the chronological movement of the biblical story. DISCIPLE groups consist of twelve members and two leaders and meet weekly for 2 ½ hours for 34 weeks (August through May). Each participant makes a commitment to daily preparation (30-45 minutes every day) and attendance at and participation in every group study session. DISCIPLE aims at transformation, not just information. DISCIPLE calls on persons to submit themselves to examination by Scripture, to put themselves under the power of God's Word, and to be changed by God's Word. DISCIPLE (I): BECOMING DISCIPLES THROUGH BIBLE STUDY will be offered on Wednesday evenings, from 6:15 pm until 8:45 pm, beginning August 18.

DISCIPLE(III): REMEMBER WHO YOU ARE is for graduates of the first study, and will be offered on Tuesday mornings from 10:00 am until noon, and Tuesday evenings 6:30 to 9:00 pm beginning August 17.

Registration for all classes is on-going. Call the church office for more information.

New Study on The Gospel of Mark

Join Pastor Scott's video blog as we study the Gospel of Mark. A new video blog is posted on the church web site (www.asburyumc.com) every Friday afternoon around 4:00 pm. Join us as we discuss this important book of the New Testament, believed to be the oldest of the Synoptic Gospels.

The Asbury Business Directory is now ON LINE at www.asburyumc.com !

Calling all business owners! Asbury now has a Directory of Businesses owned & operated by Asbury Members. It is accessible from the church website! If you would like to include your business in this E-Directory, contact the church office at (407) 644-5222 or by email at:

Mulligan Study Returns

Beginning Sunday, June 27, Asbury will hold a unique bible study. AFTER Sunday services (at 1:00 PM), up to 12 men will meet for lunch at Deer Run golf course. We will hold The Mulligan Bible Study until 2:30, after which we'll enjoy a special rate for 9 or 18 holes of golf. If you would like to make this a family outing, your family can join us at the club after class where I will offer them free lessons to get them started in golf.

God delivered the Mulligan book to me by way of Wally Armstrong, to whom I am forever indebted. I now talk to Jesus as my best friend and he in turn guides me COMPLETELY. Join us for a life changing encounter with Jesus Christ. Invite Him to join you as your creator, savior, and friend. In His name I do this.

UMM BREAKFAST

The next UMM Breakfast will be Saturday, July 3, at 7:30 am in the Fellowship Hall. There will be a 45-minute, patriotic film, "One Nation Under God" narrated by David Barton.

All men are encouraged to participate in the men's fellowship breakfast.

UMM/LEESBURG RETREAT

Asbury will return to the Men's retreat at Leesburg, (Fruitland Park), during the weekend of October 15-17. Back by popular demand, will be the camping edition, for which Dennis Stevenson is soliciting head counts A.S.A.P., so sites can be reserved. Camping is a wonderful experience, especially for a father-son outing, as well as a camping delight. Also, let Dennis know if you want to attend the spiritual programs; ($35/pp) or eat in the mess hall; ($44/pp), Camp sites are $44 total, and can accommodate up to 3-4 tents, which represents a considerable cost savings. We ask that campers attend the usual Saturday night Asbury group meeting, for fellowship and photos. Call Dennis Stevenson for details or to reserve your spot.

Whether you plan to experience the Great Outdoors or the luxurious Great Indoors of the Life Enrichment Center,

THE TIME TO GET YOUR RESERVATION IN TO DENNIS STEVENSON IS RIGHT NOW!

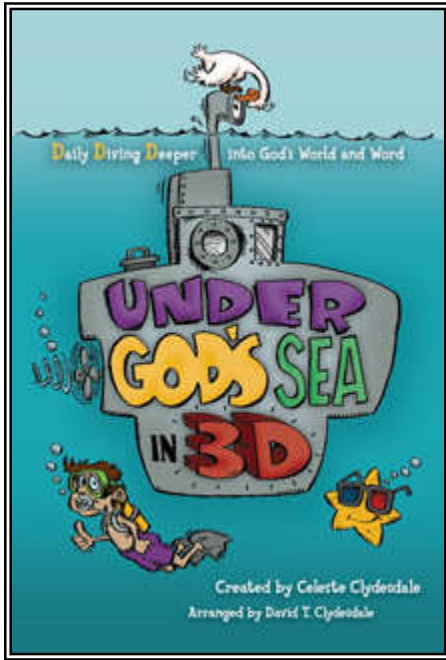

The speakers will be Riley Short (Retired Pastor, First UMC, Lakeland), Bishop James Swanson, Sr., and Special Enrichment Speaker, Rev. James Swanson, Sr. Pastor Lincoln Park UMC, Washington DC.

The UMM encourages all men who would like to go to register NOW. This allows the UMM to reserve one additional space for each registration. This year the UMM want to have a record turnout from Asbury, SO DON'T DELAY. See any member of the UMM executive board for registration details. Once you go to Leesburg, you'll agree it was one of your better decisions!

Our Mission:

To know the love of Jesus Christ and pass it on!

Notes of Praise and Thanksgiving

Thank You

To my wonderful Church family. The love shown to me and my family overwhelms me. The delicious food, the beautiful reception, the cards, the calls, visits, flowers, and prayers have been my life line. It is with deep, heartfelt appreciation and love to all you wonderful people that I say I love you and thank you all so very, very much.

Stay in touch

Asbury truly is a family. We're among the first to rejoice and congratulate others when joys like graduations, weddings, and births occur in our Asbury family. When sorrows darken, we're there as well with prayer, help, and a word of comfort. Sometimes, though, we don't know about an event in the lives of others at Asbury for many days or even weeks. That's why we're offering a new communication vehicle -- The Celebrations and Concerns E-mail. Whenever the church office learns of a significant event affecting the Asbury family, an e-mail will be sent out to everyone who has indicated a desire to be notified. Please complete the form below and drop it off in the church office or in the Sunday offering plate.

THE CAMPBELL/GOOD NEWS CLASS

THE CAMPBELL/GOOD NEWS CLASS would like any adults who do not have a Sunday School Class home, or who would like to visit us, to join us on Sunday mornings at 9:30 for friendly discourse and Bible lessons and discussions!

Me? Sleep on the ground? Under a freeway? In the city?

Yes, you can. And when you do, you'll be helping the hundreds of men, women and children who sleep like that every night. It's more than just a great experience...

And whether you participate or give to support the cause, you're going to open the doors to new life right here in our community.

Each $24.72 you raise through sponsorship will provide one homeless man, woman or child a night of shelter and care including a hot meal, clean clothing and hope. We're challenging each of this year's participants to raise enough support to provide 10 nights!

Last year through One Homeless Night, more than 500 volunteers raised enough money to provide over a thousand homeless men, women and children with food and shelter in the Central Florida area.

One Night = Changed Lives

WHO? YOU.

WHAT? SLEEP OUTSIDE.

WHERE? UNDERNEATH THE I-4 OVERPASS.

WHEN? SEPTEMBER 17-18, 2010.

WHY? TO RAISE MONEY FOR THE HOMELESS.

For more information visit www.ourm.org.

7 Ways You Can Truly Help The Homeless

1. Never give cash directly to the homeless.
2. Talk to the homeless with respect.
3. Share God's love whenever you can.
4. Pray for the homeless.
5. Be an advocate for homeless issues.
6. Encourage the homeless to get help at the Orlando Union Rescue Mission.
7. Financially support the Orlando Union Rescue Mission.

How Can I Help...?

LAY READERS NEEDED

Lay readers provide a meaningful way to extend the goal of "...every member in ministry..." to our worship services. They provide a brief offertory prayer and read the scriptures before the sermon, and that's all there is to it! Just see Jack Frye before, after, or between services, or leave your name and phone number in the church office, if you can serve once or twice per year. You'll be glad you did!

CHILDREN'S WORSHIP TRAINING

Training session for all those who serve as assistants in our Children's Worship program. Sunday, August 22, 9:30 am, Rooms 16-17. SAVE THE DATE

ACOLYTES

Are you interested in being an Acolyte? Qualifications: 4-12th grade, or tall enough to light the candles and mature enough to sit calmly through the service on the stage! Contact Carla Smith for details and training. 407-644-5222 ext. 103.

RUSSELL HOME NEEDS

The Russell Home for Atypical Children is currently in need of Canned foods, dry (non perishable) foods, cereals, and oatmeal. If you can help, leave your donations at the Missions Table.

HUNGERFORD FAMILY NEED

A Hungerford Elementary School family lost their home to a fire recently. They are in need of the following items: Clothing and shoes (ages 2,5,8, boys and mom, 38 (XL)). They also need furniture, groceries, and hygiene products. If you are able to donate to this family please contact Teresa Scott at 407-497-1954.

Volunteers Needed for Vacation Bible School

It's a pretty safe bet (if we were betting folks) that the adults will have at least as much fun (if not more) than the kids. You can sign up to volunteer on line (go to the Asbury UMM web page) or call the church office. Vacation bible school at Asbury is an outreach ministry to our community. Save the dates: July 12 - 16

GREETERS NEEDED!

Do you like to talk to people? Well now you can enjoy your hobby and serve the Church at the same time! We need Greeters at the 8:15 am and 11:00 am services. You can be the face of Asbury to visitors and new members (and what the heck, you can even greet longtime members if you want to!).

To our beloved...

Our Mission:
To know the love of Jesus Christ and pass it on!

A WORSHIP OPPORTUNITY FOR EVERY HEART!

Sunday mornings

- ◆ 8:15 a.m. Traditional Service in the Sanctuary: This service has a traditional format to the order of worship, using the great creeds of our faith, congregational prayers, and hymns of the church. Fellowship time follows this service; coffee, juice, and donuts are served.
- ◆ 9:30 a.m. Celebration Service in the Fellowship Hall: A “Tra-digital” worship experience for the young and the young at heart.
- ◆ 9:45 and 11:00 a.m. Enrichment Hours I and II: Asbury offers a variety of “Enrichment” classes on Sunday mornings. Enrichment Hour I at 9:45 a.m. and Enrichment Hour II at 11:00 a.m. Contact the church office to find the perfect class for you.
- ◆ 11:00 a.m. Blended Service in the Sanctuary: This service has a “blended” format, with elements of both the traditional and Celebration styles of worship.

Wednesday evenings

- ◆ 6:00 p.m. Vespers Worship Service in the Chapel: Prayer, music, and a short message following Supper during Wednesday Night Live. Worship leader: Charles Row.

Friday evenings

- ◆ 7:15 p.m. Celebrate Recovery Worship Service in the Fellowship Hall: A Christ-centered approach to healing hang-ups, habits and hurts. Worship leader: Dick Stultz
